April 12, 2010

ADVISORY NOTICE re “Earn Extra Cash Online”

The Kahnawake Gaming Commission advises that it does not license or regulate the site known as "Earn Extra Cash Online" - http://eextraonline.com. This site is improperly and unlawfully claiming to be licensed by the Commission and is displaying the Commission's logo without the Commission's approval or consent. The Commission has contacted the administrator of the site and directed that all references to the Commission be immediately removed.

We have been advised that this site is also improperly displaying the logos of MicroGaming and eCOGRA - neither of which has any association with the site.

The Commission urges anyone who may consider playing on this site to use extreme caution as, based on available information, there is a high suspicion that the site is fraudulent.

For further information contact:

Murray Marshall
General Counsel
Kahnawake Gaming Commission
murray.marshall@gamingcommission.ca